The payment term for customers is a maximum of 30 days from date of invoice.

Startflow BV (as part of Van Stenis Group Holding BV), is a SME company under the definition of Dutch law (article 2:397 lid BW Boek 2). Deviating payment terms are only allowed for other SME businesses, according to Dutch law, when a written agreement exists between your company and Startflow BV. Large companies are obligated to a maximum of 30 days from date of invoice (artikel 119a BW Boek 6).

For more information about this matter, please do not hesitate to contact our financial department.
